

Tai Chi Easy™ Practice Leader Certification

Friday, October 13 — Sunday, October 15, 2017

Friday & Saturday: 8 am – 5:30 pm

Sunday: 8 am – 5pm

Conference Room J | Doylestown Hospital

595 West State Street | Doylestown, PA

Presented by: IIQTC Tai Chi Easy™ Senior Trainers Brian Trzaskos, PT, and Kalind Bakshi, MD

Sponsored by: Doylestown Hospital Rehabilitation Department in collaboration with the Healer Within Foundation

Course Description

Tai Chi has been proven to be effective in decreasing the risk of falls and treating balance deficits, heart disease, COPD, osteoarthritis, and aid in cancer recovery. This 3-day training empowers individuals to learn for themselves—and then be able to share with others—compelling, fun, and accessible evidence based self-care practices. Tai Chi Easy™ blends a simple medical Qigong technique with carefully chosen Tai Chi exercises that can be done in bed, while seated, in a stationary standing position, or combined with Tai Chi Walking. Help your patients and clients as well as yourself manage stress and pain, reduce anxiety, improve sleep, mood, balance and stamina. This course is approved for CEU's for both nurses and physical therapists.

Course Objectives

- Discuss the origin of Tai Chi.
- Explain the purpose and health benefits of regular Tai Chi practice.
- Perform the 4 components of Tai Chi Easy™: massage, movement, breath, meditation.
- Perform Tai Chi Easy™ walking with and without upper body movements.
- Describe the Tai Chi Easy™ teaching method.
- Lead small groups in beginning Tai Chi Easy™ practice.
- Describe the role of Tai Chi Easy™ practice.
- Use feedback from the members of a practice group to make adjustments in leading group practice.
- Construct a 45-minute small group session including massage, movement, breath, and meditation.
- Apply principles of the building blocks of the Tai Chi Easy™ teaching method to accommodate the needs of groups with physical and cognitive limitations.
- Describe at least one way that Tai Chi Easy™ might be incorporated into your professional practice.
